Don't you know that many bloggers and website owners have been doing this for a long time? Yes! Easily earning that much money. But to do these things you need dedication, passion, waiting and patience.

Because you have to write a great type of content for Google which will allow Google to put an ad on this website. After clicking on this ad you will pay for it. Can make a lot of money.

Let me also tell you that Google takes money from Advertisers when its ads are clicked. You will get 68% amount of Click. and 51% is found when a Google AdSense search returns to you.

The Commission You will get depends on the CPC and which is your niche website. Google CPC also ranges from $0.1 to $15 after more clicks on the ad, which means that if any advertiser comes and clicks on the ad, Google will pay the advertisers up to $25.

Most of the Publisher to get range $3 from the publisher. also remember that among of them lot of niches are profitable Google pays a lot.

The amount of money you earn from Google AdSense depends on many of its policies. Here are some of the key ones:

What should be the content in your page ?

The best source of income you can get is the content on your page which gives you the best revenue from Google.

For example, your page has information that is in demand by the advertiser and you have written a good special content on it and if your Google AdSense ads are repeatedly placed inside this content, your revenue will increase. Is expected.

Which Ads Placement is suitable ?

There is no doubt that installing ads within Google AdSense is a very important task and it is very much taken care of. Because if we put ads in the wrong places, it is possible that the eyes of the website visitor will not reach the side, so the ad will not be clicked, and not clicking on the ad will significantly reduce the revenue. Will be.

That's why it's important to put the ad in the right place and it depends on the layout of your website and how many people visit your website.

Similarly, in order to make the best choice to install Google Ad, we must follow the instructions given by Google and these instructions are written on Google's Google Heatmap page.

How do I Get Paid from AdSense ?

Google pays its users every month and pays by Check or direct deposit and this payment is made at that time when payment reaches one hundred dollars or higher than $100 threshold.

And if your money doesn't reach a hundred dollars that month, that hundred dollars will be rolled out again in the next month.

And similarly, if you earn a hundred dollars a month, Google will give you a payment of a hundred dollars a month.

And this payment will be given to you by Google on the due date of 25th of each month. You will see the amount voucher in your Google AdSense account. You can receive what you have given in Google AdSense Payment method.

You will then need to verify your personal information, Included in this is your Personal Identification Numbers PIN. This is the PIN that was asked for your home or office address while creating the account so that your account can be verified by sending you there.

That's why it's important to verify your address and the name of the recipient when creating an account to avoid problems later.

Here are the Some steps to get paid by AdSense

1 -The first thing you need to do is enter your tax information into your Google AdSense account. Depending on your location, you may need to add tax information to your Google AdSense account.

Because every country has its own tax system, but Google AdSense must submit the tax system of the United States.

2- The Next Step is to verify your identity. Google can verify your identification from you. It can also verify you with the help of information such as your name and address, your residence etc.

3. Once the address to which your Post PIN was sent has been verified, you will now need to fill out a form that will ask you how to make a Google AdSense payment.

When your money reaches $100 within Google AdSense account, then Google AdSense allows you to choose the payment method you want to be paid by check from direct deposit or directly to your bank account. By sending in. EFT (Electronic Funds Transfer) and wire transfer etc.

Now you have to follow all the necessary instructions of the payment method. Remember that when your payment reaches one hundred dollars, then there is a twenty-one day process to reach you before end of the month.

When do I Get Paid by Google AdSense?

Once the month is over, Google AdSense will calculate your earnings for one month. Before finalizing your payment, they will check to see if someone has used the wrong clicks or if any such wrong activity has been used. It will take a few weeks for someone to confirm this.

They usually complete their work by the 20th of next month. And so Google AdSense will send you money in the last week of next month-

If all of these steps are successfully completed by Google AdSense, Google will make all payments to you from the 21st to the 26th of the Month.

During this process, you will also see a line inside your account on the transaction line indicating that work is in progress.

However, for the EFT procedure, you will have to wait another ten days for the money to be sent directly to your bank account from payment sent.

And on the other hand Wire Transfer which will take about fifteen days to reach your bank. Such publishers can earn the best money from Google AdSense by writing a good piece of content and applying it to Google. Sometimes in the future it will give you more than your part time job.

If you want to be very successful in Google AdSense, you have to write great content and articles that will make the visitors come to your site and get the most out of it.
